Development

Professor XXX class impressed me for the close contact among the present, and his cheerful spirit and deep insights. I could also talk to many students, some of whom introduced by my former workmate XX (xxx XX), and others who just approached me, proving the school's collaborative environment. I was very excited to know, too, that this year the xxx will visit XX - to which my roots are tied and in which I have the utmost interest. I have a long standing personal interest in XXX. But my interest in XX goes beyond that: the course is a fundamental piece in my career plans. In the short term, playing a differentiation role from other MBA graduates upon returning to AXX, especially for our Latin America wide scope. And in the long term, it will allow me to connect my entrepreneurial aspirations with XX and my family roots there.

Action

I would like to reinforce, once again and even stronger my willingness to join SCHOOL.	All the information and insights into the school that you provided me with have been invaluable in my evaluation of the school and my decision to apply to SCHOOL X as my number one choice.	I'm deeply focused on joining SCHOOL X community next year and I have been devoting thoroughly to my preparation.	The entire event only reinforced my interest in applying to XX, now my first choice.	I would like to take the opportunity to stress that xxx is my first choice and I would be ready to sign my commitment to the xxx MBA Program as soon as it is required. Last xxx I could feel the great environment at xxx what undoubtedly increased my enthusiasm about its MBA Program. I am certain that it would be wonderful to be part of SCHOOL X.
